COMPLIMENTARY.—The people of Midway and vicinity for the past two weeks have had the pleasure of listening to some fine sermons by Elder Tinsley. His style of preach-ing appeals to the intellect, the reason, and the heart combined. He presents the great gospel truths in plain, though forcible manner, and the results have been most gratifying indeed. Elder Tinsley's preaching will have an influence upon the church and community that will be lasting.—Blue Grass Clipper.

I have located in Owingsville and am ready to do work such as Brick-work, Setting Grates, Plastering, etc., at reasonable prices. Satisfaction guaranteed.

A. S. STROTHER.

TO MY FRIENDS OF BATH COUNTY.—Please accept my kindest thanks and regards for your true and ear-nest support in the primary of the 25th ult. Though I am defeated, I assure both friend and foe that I hold malice against no one, and only feel that the people chose Mr. Perry as less but him more, and how in reverence to their will. I am out of the race for the present, but most certainly am for W. F. Perry for School Supt. of Bath county.

Especially do I thank the people of my home precinct for their strong and earnest support. You have proven to me that you have a warm and sincere feeling for me, and I assure you that it is earnestly and sincerely appreciated by me. Kindly yours,

J. D. MYERS.

RECRUITS FOR THE PHILIPPINES.—The recruiting officer at Lexington, Ky., has just received orders to enlist a number of white men for service in the regiments now in the Philippine Islands. These men will be sent direct to San Francisco as soon as they are enlisted in Lex-ington, and from there they will be sent direct to Manila. This will make a fine trip around the world for able-bodied unmarried men who want to see the world. Such persons should apply at the re-cruiting office in Lexington at once in order to get in before it is too late.

We have a good twenty-horse power engine which we would trade for lumber.

RECORD OF SNOWFALL.—Mrs. Ma-randa Warner, of Harrison county, commenced last fall keeping a re-cord of the days on which snow fell. The first snow was on Oct. 26th. She took sick about that time and failed to note the date of the next few snowy days. The record was then kept accurately, as follows: Dec. 4, 6, 7, 12, 13, 25, 27, 30, 31; Jan. 5, 6, 9, 17, 24, 26, 27, 28, 29, 30, 31; Feb. 2, 4, 6, 7, 11, 13, 23, 24; March 5, 6, 19, 23, 25, 26, 29; April 1, 2, 3, 4, 5, 6, 7, 8, 9, 10, 11, 12, 13, 14, 15, 16, 17, 18, 19, 20, 21, 22, 23, 24, 25, 26, 27, 28, 29, 30, 31. A total of 44 days on which more or less snow fell in a record of a very severe winter.

FIRE FIGHT PURSUED HIM.—John Scott's residence, on Peled Oak, was destroyed by fire at 2 o'clock Monday night. The household goods were consumed also excepting a feather bed or two, a clock and a few other articles. His father, Henry Scott, who had removed from here to Mt. Sterling not a great while ago, had arranged to move in with John until he could get pos-session of his house here and had already taken there two loads of his goods, which were burned in the building. There was $300 insur-ance on the house and $300 on the furniture. John is undoubtedly pursued by some relentless enemy, as several fires have destroyed property for him in the past seven years.

TO EXECUTORS, ADMINISTRATORS, GUARDIANS, ETC.—The law requires a settlement of your accounts ev-ery year. It will be at my office to make such settlements every day. After thirty days will begin to send fiduciary notices to those who fail to settle.

JOHN A. RAMSEY, Co. Judge.

BANKRUPT ATTORNEYS.—It will be of interest to attorneys who de-sire to file petitions in bankruptcy in the United States District Court, or to conduct proceedings in such cases, to know that they must first be admitted to practice in the Court or District Court of the United States. This is necessary under the provisions of Rule No. IV promulgated by the Supreme Court.

Attorneys who have cases to file in the Court at Frankfort may be sworn in by the Clerk at Frank-ort, he having authority to admin-ister the oath to qualified attorneys and to enter the necessary order admitting them to practice in the United States Courts.

LOUISVILLE TOBACCO MARKET.—By Geo. R. Snyder, of the Planters Warehouse.—Louisville, Ky., April 29, 1899.—The tendency of the market is upward on Burley tobacco. Red leaf, tips and color are strong and firm and are in demand. This week of seventy-five cents to one dollar per hundred. Cigarette tobacco is very scarce and is selling at $1.50 to $2 per hundred higher than the same tobacco sold for two weeks since. The planting for this season is awkward, coupled with small receipts and reduced offer-ings, the manufacturers wish to keep their redrying house going, and with some speculative demand, see no reason why prices should go back in the near future.

HARDWARE.—Farming Imple-ments of all kinds and cheaper than any one. See me before pur-chasing.

Mrs. NANNIE FRATMAN'S DEATH.—After a long illness of consumption, Miss Nannie Fratman died at the home of her mother, Mrs. Emma Bradbury, near Bethel, at about 7 o'clock p. m. Saturday, April 29th. The interment took place at the Owingsville Cemetery about 11 o'clock a. m. Monday. Services were conducted at the grave by Elder Tinsley in the presence of a large crowd of mourning relatives and friends. Miss Nannie was the only daughter of Frank Fratman, deceased, and was born and par-tially reared in this town. She was aged about 25 years. She was a handsome, gentle, lovable girl and her death comes as a heavy blow not only to her mother and family but also to her many friends. The sympathy of THE OUTLOOK is ex-tended to the sorrowing family.

OBITUARY.—In loving remem-brance of Elizabeth Garrard, who departed this life April 24th. She was 75 years and 8 months old. She was a consistent member of the Christian church. She bore her affliction patiently, being re-signed to God's will. She called her children to her and, like Jacob of old, invoked God's blessings upon them, telling them to meet her in Heaven, and passed away quietly. She leaves ten children—3 boys and 7 girls—and a host of friends to mourn their loss. After funeral services at the house by Rev. G. E. Boots her remains were laid to rest in the Estill burying ground. Her children will be lonely here with-out her, but may God comfort them with the thought: "Mother is at home with Jesus."

Rest, our loving mother rest. Sweetly on the Savior's breast; Soon we'll meet on Heaven's shore There to weep and part no more.

A FRIEND.

WALTER MCLEIN DEAD.—After an illness of several months, Walter McLein, aged about 22 years, died of consumption at the home of his grandmother, Mrs. Nancy Lacy, east of town, about 8 o'clock Wed-nesday morning, April 26th, 1899. Burial in Owingsville Cemetery about 11 o'clock a. m. Thursday. The pall-bearers were O. F. Byron, Clyde Byron, Walter Coyle, A. T. Byron, Robert Coyle and E. L. Byron. Walter McLein was a good, christian boy. Being of a rather quiet, retiring disposition he did not make many acquaintances, but all who knew him liked him and were glad to call him "friend." He was a member of the Owingsville Christian Church. To the grief-stricken relatives the entire Out-look force extends its sympathy and condolences, but they should find comfort in the knowledge that "just across the silent river there is One who says 'Come up to me all ye that are weak and heavy laden, and I will give you rest.'"

SUGGESTION TO KNITTERS.—A good many women in the country earn a little pin money by knitting woolen socks for sale during the long win-ter evenings or at other leisure times. This suggestion is made to them in the belief that if acted on it will make their product more in demand and also bring a better price. For reasons of health and comfort everybody should be cloth-ed in soft woolen underwear from head to feet in winter. There is no other clothing that affords such protection to the body from sudden changes of temperature. In fact, some eminent authorities advise the use of woolen clothing at all seasons, it being equally a protection against extreme heat and ex-treme cold from its property of be-ing a non-conductor of heat. Light, soft woolen summer underwear is coming more into use all the time. The suggestion is this: At sheep shearing time, which is at hand now, retain for carding and home spinning the colored fleeces, for which, for some unaccountable reason, local wool buyers generally will not pay as much as for white wool. Knit socks from this nat-ural colored wool without any at-tempt at dyeing. Make them prin-cipally in men's sizes, for feet wear-ing from No. 7 to No. 10 shoes, mostly 8's and 9's; not long, but only medium length of leg, and do not commit a common fault of making the leg too small for an average well-developed person; make the tops with moderately heavy ribs; let each pair be of uni-form color throughout; do not at-tempt any sort of ornamentation unless it be making the toes and heels of white yarn; let neatness and a careful using of each pair characterize the knitting. Such socks are better than machine knit socks that sell at 50 cents to 75 cents per pair and will bring as good a price if they are nicely made. It is a mistake to use dyed yarns, because they will fade and oftentimes the feet are stained by the dyes dissolved out by the per-spiration. Ornamentation by means of stripes of colored yarns is not in good taste. The advantage that natural colored wool has over white is that it does not show the discolor-ation from wear that comes in spite of thorough washing. If the women will act on this suggestion it is be-lieved they will have no trouble in selling socks at 50 cents per pair instead of 25 to 35 cents as heretofore.

COULDN'T GET A "COM." EVEN—A lamb, a goose, a frog and a skunk wanted to go to the theater, to which the admission was one dollar. The lamb could get in all right, for he had four quarters; also the goose, for he had a bill; the frog also, for he had a greenback; but the poor skunk had only a cent, and it was a bad one.—Spencer Courier.

NO EDITORS NEED APPLY.—An exchange says that an editor once applied at the door of Hades for admission. "Well," replied his sa-bile majesty, "we let one of your profession in here many years ago, and he kept up a continual row with his former delinquent sub-scribers; and, as we have more of that class than any other, we have passed a law prohibiting the ad-mission of editors."—Ex.

AN AUTHOR IN EMERGO.—The teacher of a school in the rural dis-tricts assigned each pupil the task of writing an original story. On the day when the stories were read a bright little towhead arose and started in as follows: "On the green slope of a moun-tain stood a first-class Jersey cow with three legs."

"That won't do, Jehannie," inter-rupted the teacher. "You are one leg short."

"No, I ain't," replied the future author. "You don't wait to git my plot, which is that a railroad train cut off one leg, and the owner of the cow got $3,000 damages, and moved his whole family to Paris in time for the exposition, where the girls will be married to rich French-men and die happy ever afterward."

—Atlanta Constitution.

HUSBANDS TO BURN.—A railroad conductor from Washington to Baltimore tells the following: "I found a lady in black grieving pro-fusely. I asked, 'My poor madam, can I be of any help to you, and what is the matter?' She replied, 'Oh, conductor, conductor, I have my husband's remains in the bag-gage car, carrying them to Balti-more to be cremated.' A little further down the car a lady just as handsome as the other said to me, 'Conductor, what ails that good sister?' 'Madam, I replied, 'she is carrying the body of her husband to Baltimore to be cremated, and I am surprised at her grief, as it is her fourth husband.' Lady No. 2 began to weep very loudly, and in great surprise I said, 'Madam, you are worse than the other sister. What ails you?' 'Oh, conductor, the Lord is not good. I have trust-ed to the Lord for forty years and never had any husband, and there is a woman with husbands to burn.'—Ex.

A PEN SKETCH OF MAN.—As a sample of what an old maid can do with a pen we submit the follow-ing: "Man is a two-legged animal that chews tobacco and walks on the forked end. Most men are born; we never heard of but one that wasn't and he was made of mud, just for a sample. Man's life is full of disappointment, growls and corn-cob pipes. He goes forth like a lion in the morning and leaves the wood for his wife to chop, and in the evening he sneak-eth home with his pants ripped, and raises Cain about hard times. He has a grip on road-working days, and walks twenty miles to a circus. He will chase a jack-rabbit four miles through the snow, and then borrow a horse to ride half a mile to the postoffice."—Ex.

A WITTY PARASITE.—A thunder-storm overtook the Emperor Fran-cis Joseph of Austria when out shooting in 1873 with old Emperor William of Germany and Victor Emmanuel. The three monarchs got separated from their party and lost their way. They were drenched to the skin, and, in search of shelter, hailed a peasant driving a covered cart drawn by oxen along the high road. The peasant took up the royal trio and drove on.

"And who may you be, for you are a stranger in these parts?" he asked after awhile of Emperor William.

"I am the Emperor of Germany," replied his Teutonic majesty.

"His, very good," said the peas-ant, and then, addressing Victor Emmanuel, "And you, my friend?"

"Why, I am the King of Italy," came the prompt reply.

"His, his, very good indeed! And who are you?" addressing Francis Joseph.

"I am the Emperor of Austria," said the latter.

The peasant then scratched his head. "Very good, and who do you suppose I am?"

Their majesties replied they would like very much to know.

"Why, I am His Holiness the Pope."—Exchange.
